

The services of the Tourism Authority are free of charge.

Applicants and licensees only pay the prescribed fees for application, letter of intent, survey and licence/certificate as applicable

All individuals acting as consultants should be holder of a Business Registration Number and the Tourism Authority will not accept application and entertain queries from unregistered consultants.

Third party should produce a duly signed letter of authorisation if acting on behalf of applicant/licensee.

Offering gratification, especially for a corrupt purpose, is a criminal offence under the Prevention of Corruption Act.